

A black and white portrait of a middle-aged, bald man with a friendly expression. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a white dress shirt, and a dark, textured tie. His hands are positioned at the knot of his tie, as if he is adjusting it. The background is slightly out of focus, showing vertical lines that could be part of a modern interior or a bookshelf. Overlaid on the lower half of the image is the text "Petit ogre pourri" in a large, white, sans-serif font.
