

A black and white photograph of a middle-aged woman with short, wavy, light-colored hair. She is looking directly at the camera with a serious, almost stern expression. She is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, blazer or jacket over a dark top, and a pearl necklace. Her arms are crossed in front of her. The background is blurred, showing some indistinct shapes and colors. The text "Fais-toi stériliser" is overlaid in white at the bottom of the image.
